DAY 01 · ARRIVAL IN TUNIS

TUNIS & SIDI BOU SAID

Welcome to Tunisia — a land where three millennia of civilisation breathe through every archway, mosaic and sun-warmed stone.

Depending on your arrival time, your first encounter with this extraordinary country begins in Sidi Bou Said — a spellbinding artist's village perched above the Gulf of Tunis, its cobalt-blue shutters and immaculate whitewashed walls tumbling down limestone hillsides above a shimmering sea. Poets and painters have been captivated here for generations.

The afternoon continues with a private visit to the Erlanger Palace, a masterwork of Moorish-Andalusian architecture whose tiled salons and perfumed gardens reveal the opulent world of Tunisia's Bey era.

Dinner and overnight accommodation in Tunis.

DAY 02 · TUNIS

MEDINA · SOUKS · BARDO MUSEUM

Step into the labyrinthine heart of medieval Tunis — the Medina, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1979. Wander beneath vaulted arches to the Zitouna Mosque (exterior), the exquisite beylical house Dar Lasram, and the legendary souks organised by craft: perfumers, jewellers, leather artisans, weavers — each lane a living museum of Tunisian savoir-faire.

Lunch at a heritage-listed restaurant within the medina walls, then an afternoon at the Bardo Museum: a 19th-century beylical palace housing one of the world's finest collections of Roman mosaics. An afternoon that redefines magnificence.

Dinner and overnight in Tunis.

DAY 03 · UTICA · TABARKA

ANCIENT PORTS & WILD NORTHERN COAST

Depart for Utica — one of the oldest Phoenician settlements on African soil and once the proud capital of the Roman province of Africa Vetus. Explore the archaeological site: the Punic necropolis, the beautifully preserved Roman houses and the haunting quiet of a city that outlived its empire.

Lunch in Bizerte, where a luminous lagoon opens to the Mediterranean, before continuing through fragrant pine forests to Tabarka — a coastal jewel on Tunisia's northern shore, known for its Genoese citadel, coral diving and the relaxed, unhurried rhythm of the Tunisian north. A leisurely walk through town as the sun descends over the water.

Dinner and overnight in Tabarka.

DAY 04 · TABARKA > KAIROUAN

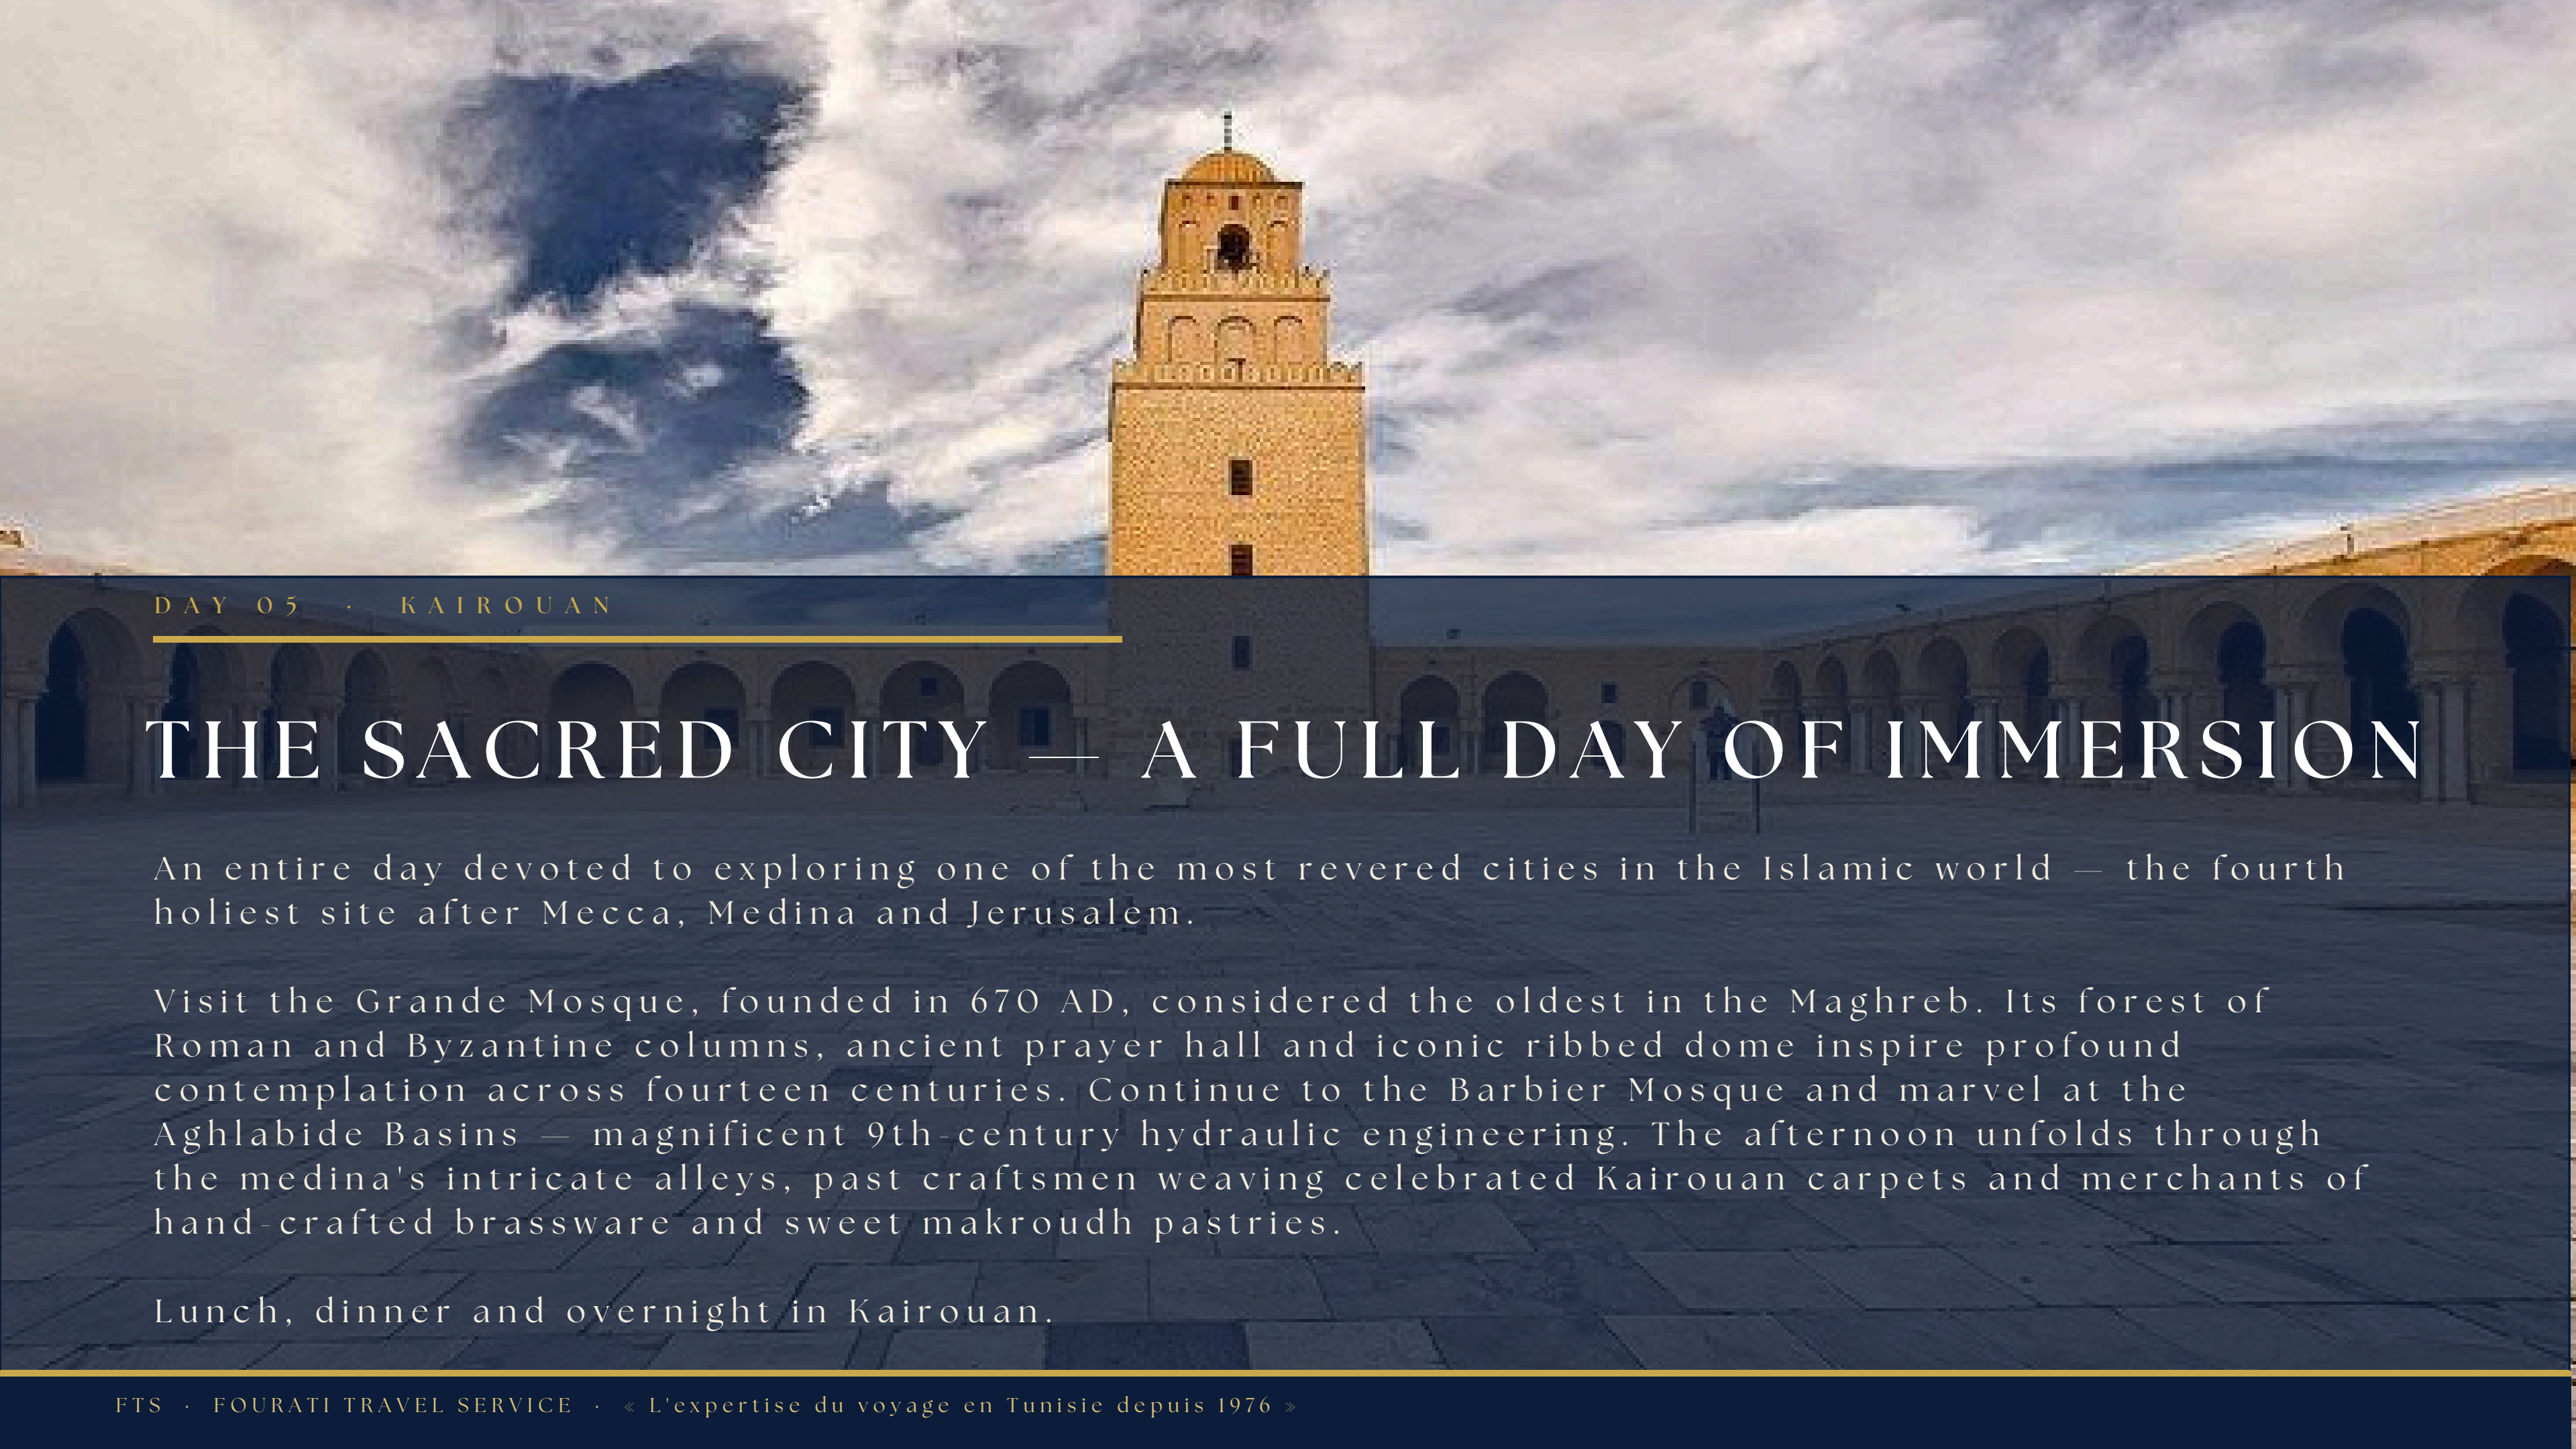

BULLA REGIA · DOUGGA · KAIROUAN

A day of extraordinary Roman heritage. Begin at Bulla Regia — uniquely famous for its underground villas built to escape the summer heat, their floors adorned with superb mosaics that glow in the cool subterranean light.

Continue to Dougga: arguably the best-preserved Roman city in all of North Africa. Its hilltop theatre, triumphal capitol and thermal baths remain awe-inspiring testaments to ancient civilisation — a UNESCO World Heritage Site of rare, theatrical beauty set against the open Tunisian hills.

Afternoon journey to Kairouan, one of the holiest cities in Islam, where the spiritual atmosphere is felt from the moment you pass through the ancient gates.

Dinner and overnight in Kairouan.

DAY 05 · KAIROUAN

THE SACRED CITY — A FULL DAY OF IMMERSION

An entire day devoted to exploring one of the most revered cities in the Islamic world — the fourth holiest site after Mecca, Medina and Jerusalem.

Visit the Grande Mosque, founded in 670 AD, considered the oldest in the Maghreb. Its forest of Roman and Byzantine columns, ancient prayer hall and iconic ribbed dome inspire profound contemplation across fourteen centuries. Continue to the Barbier Mosque and marvel at the Aghlabide Basins — magnificent 9th-century hydraulic engineering. The afternoon unfolds through the medina's intricate alleys, past craftsmen weaving celebrated Kairouan carpets and merchants of hand-crafted brassware and sweet makroudh pastries.

Lunch, dinner and overnight in Kairouan.

SBEITLA · GATEWAY TO THE DESERT

Journey across the high steppe to Sbeitla — ancient Sufetula — where three remarkably intact Roman temples rise side by side on a monumental forum beneath an immense sky. One of Tunisia's most dramatic archaeological tableaux, and one of its most quietly moving.

Lunch before heading south as the landscape transforms dramatically: terracotta earth gives way to the golden palmeraie as you approach Tozeur, the enchanting oasis city at the edge of the Sahara. Tozeur enchants with its extraordinary brickwork architecture — an ancient decorative tradition unique to this region, each facade a geometric arabesque in warm honey-coloured stone.

Dinner and overnight in Tozeur.

DAY 07 · TOZEUR

CHEBIKA · TAMERZA · MIDES CANYON

Embark on a cinematic half-day 4•4 expedition through the mountain oases of Chebika, Tamerza and Mides — once Roman frontier outposts, today among Tunisia's most ethereal landscapes. Waterfalls cascade through golden gorges, abandoned Berber villages cling to cliffsides, and the canyon of Mides carves a breathtaking passage through ancient sandstone, its silence broken only by the sound of running water.

Return to Tozeur for lunch and exploration of the medina's arcaded streets. As the afternoon light turns amber, a carriage ride through the magnificent palm grove — home to some 400,000 date palms — offers a moment of pure poetry, completed with a visit to the exhibition centre dedicated to the legendary Deglet Nour date.

Dinner and overnight in Tozeur.

DAY 08 · TOZEUR > CHOTT JERID > DOUZ

CHOTT EL JERID · THE SAHARA

The morning opens at the Dar Chraiet Museum, an opulent private collection celebrating the finest of Tunisian decorative heritage. Then begins an otherworldly crossing of Chott El Jerid — an immense salt lake stretching to every horizon, where shimmering mirages conjure phantom lakes and inverted cities in the heat-hazed distance. A landscape unlike anything else on Earth.

Arrival at Douz, Gateway to the Sahara. A camel ride towards the village of Zaafrane — at the very edge of the Grand Erg Oriental — offers an encounter with the great golden silence of the Sahara that will remain with you always.

Lunch, dinner and overnight in Douz.

DAY 09 · DOUZ > MATMATA > TATAOUINE

MATMATA · CHENINI · THE KSOURS REGION

Journey into the ancient world of the Berbers. Matmata presents one of Tunisia's most surreal vistas: a community of troglodyte dwellings carved directly into the earth — circular open courtyards surrounded by cave-like chambers, some inhabited across countless generations. Visit and lunch.

Continue further south into the Ksours region, a landscape of otherworldly beauty. The perched Berber village of Chenini ranks among the most dramatically sited human settlements imaginable — its ruined mosque and pale stone houses clinging to a rocky spur above the desert plain, shimmering in the late afternoon light.

Dinner and overnight in Tataouine.

DAY 10 · TATAOUINE > SFAX

KSOURS · DOUIRET · SFAX

A morning immersed in the legendary Ksour — multi-storey fortified granaries (ghorfas) built by Berber tribes as communal treasure houses. Each ksar tells a story of extraordinary ingenuity, communal resilience, and a profound bond with one of the planet's most demanding landscapes.

Visit the haunting abandoned Berber village of Douiret: pale stone houses terraced up a hillside beneath a crumbling ksar, achingly beautiful in its stillness — a world paused, not destroyed.

Lunch before heading north to Sfax, Tunisia's industrious second city, celebrated for its magnificent walled medina and centuries of maritime and mercantile tradition.

Dinner and overnight in Sfax.

DAY 11 · SFAX > EL JEM > MONASTIR >
SOUSSE > HAMMAMET

EL JEM · MONASTIR · SOUSSE · HAMMAMET

A sweeping day of discovery begins at El Jem — whose Roman amphitheatre, rivalling the Colosseum in grandeur, rises from the Sahel plain in a display of imperial ambition that still astonishes. The adjacent museum holds magnificent mosaics from Roman Africa.

Continue to Monastir for the 8th-century Ribat fortress and the gleaming white-marble mausoleum of Habib Bourguiba. A walk through the vibrant, UNESCO-listed medina of Sousse — ancient Hadrumentum — before the final drive to Hammamet: the jewel of the Tunisian Riviera, where whitewashed walls glow gold above a luminous turquoise sea.

Dinner and overnight in Hammamet.

DAY 12 · HAMMAMET

MEDINA · KASBAH · LA DOLCE VITA

A gentle morning devoted to Hammamet's enchanting Medina — one of the smallest and most perfectly proportioned in Tunisia, its pristine whitewashed ramparts rising directly from the turquoise Mediterranean. Walk its jasmine-scented alleys and enter the Kasbah, a compact 15th-century fortress offering sweeping panoramas over the curved bay and the endless glittering sea beyond.

The free afternoon belongs entirely to you — a gift of freedom on the Tunisian Riviera. Perhaps a moment of stillness beside the water, a stroll through the gardens of the International Cultural Centre, or simply the slow pleasure of mint tea on a sun-warmed terrace.

Lunch, dinner and overnight in Hammamet.

DAY 13 · HAMMAMET > ZAGHOUAN > CARTHAGE > TUNIS

ZAGHOUAN · CARTHAGE · THE GRAND RETURN

The penultimate day is a journey through the very foundations of Western civilisation. A first stop in Zaghouan to contemplate the monumental Temple of Waters, whose Roman aqueduct once carried life-giving water 132 kilometres across the plain to Carthage itself.

Then Carthage — once mistress of the Mediterranean, rival of Rome, queen of ancient seas. Walk among the Tanit Sanctuary and the atmospheric Punic ports. Climb Byrsa Hill for its panoramic view across the Gulf of Tunis, then descend to the breathtaking Antonine Baths — among the largest thermal complexes ever built in the Roman world, their columns still standing proud against an impossibly blue Carthaginian sky.

Lunch, farewell dinner and overnight in Tunis.

DAY 14 · DEPARTURE

Until We Meet Again

Airport transfer and personal assistance with all departure formalities.

As Tunisia fades into the distance, the memories linger — the golden light over Dougga at dusk, the vast silence of the Sahara, the call to prayer drifting across ancient medinas, and the sea, always the sea, shining through whitewashed walls.

Some journeys change the way we see the world. This is one of them.
