SIDI BOU SAÏD

DAY 1

≈ 40 KM

Paris, Tunis & Sidi Bou Saïd

ARRIVAL

Flight to Tunis. Welcome on arrival.

SIDI BOU SAÏD

Discovery of Sidi Bou Saïd, a charming artists' village famous for its wrought-iron birdcages.

Recently inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List, Sidi Bou Saïd reveals the timeless elegance of Tunisia's Mediterranean coast.

AFTERNOON TREAT

Break in a café, with a taste of a typical local doughnut.

VISIT

Visit of Dar Ennejma Ezzahra, the former palace of Baron d'Erlanger.

ON THE ROAD

Drive to the capital, Tunis.

A first immersion in Mediterranean colours, architecture and Tunisian flavours.

DAY 2

≈ 70 KM

The Bardo, the medina of Tunis & Hammamet

BARDO MUSEUM

Visit of the Bardo Museum, a former 19th-century beylical palace housing, among other treasures, a fabulous collection of Roman mosaics.

LUNCH

Lunch in the medina.

MEDINA

Stroll through the medina of Tunis, a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1979: Ez-Zitouna Mosque (exterior), the Slimania madrasa — a former Koranic school — and the souks grouped by trade.

ON THE ROAD

Drive to the seaside resort of Hammamet.

MUSEUM

DAY 3

Sidi Djedidi, traditions and craftsmanship

DOUAR LAROUSSI

Excursion to the village of Sidi Djedidi and discovery of Douar Laroussi, a cluster of eco-friendly dwellings on a farming estate at the foot of El Monchar mountain.

WORKSHOPS

Experience Tunisian culture through various craft and culinary workshops: pottery, distillation — with a short walk on the heights of the site to gather raw materials, depending on the season — and baking of tabouna, the traditional Tunisian bread (subject to availability).

LUNCH

Traditional lunch with local produce. Then return to the hotel.

Activities organised according to the season and subject to availability.

DAY 4

≈ 230 KM

El Jem & Kairouan

EL JEM

Departure for El Jem: visit of the magnificent Roman amphitheatre (3rd century) and the museum with its superb collection of mosaics.

MOSAIC WORKSHOP

Mosaic workshop (approx. 45 minutes), followed by lunch.

KAIROUAN

Continue to the holy city of Kairouan and stroll through the medina.

"Observe, understand, then create your own mosaic."

EL JEM AMPHITHEATRE

MOSAIC WORKSHOP AT THE EL JEM AMPHITHEATRE

DAY 5

Kairouan, Sbeïtla & Tozeur

KAIROUAN

Visit of the Mosque of the Barber.

SUFETULA

Drive to Sbeïtla and discovery of the exceptional archaeological site of ancient Sufetula, one of the few Roman cities to have dedicated three temples to the Capitoline Triad.

HEADING SOUTH

Continue southwards.

TOZEUR

Arrival in Tozeur, on the edge of Tunisia's largest oasis.

SUFETULA, SBEÏTLA

Tozeur, from the market to the palm grove

-  MEDINA & MARKET
Stroll through the medina of Tozeur, with its decorative brickwork façades, and a tour of the market.
-  HORSE-DRAWN CARRIAGE
Horse-drawn carriage ride to the palm grove, with a visit to the exhibition centre devoted to the date palm and the date.
-  COOKING CLASS
Cooking class using ingredients chosen at the market (approx. 45 minutes), followed by lunch.

-  TREETOP ADVENTURE
Afternoon devoted to a treetop adventure course in the palm grove, around 3 metres above the ground.

GUIDANCE & SUPPORT

Travelling together, discovering with confidence

A French-speaking guide throughout, to understand and to share.

Organised transport and guided visits.

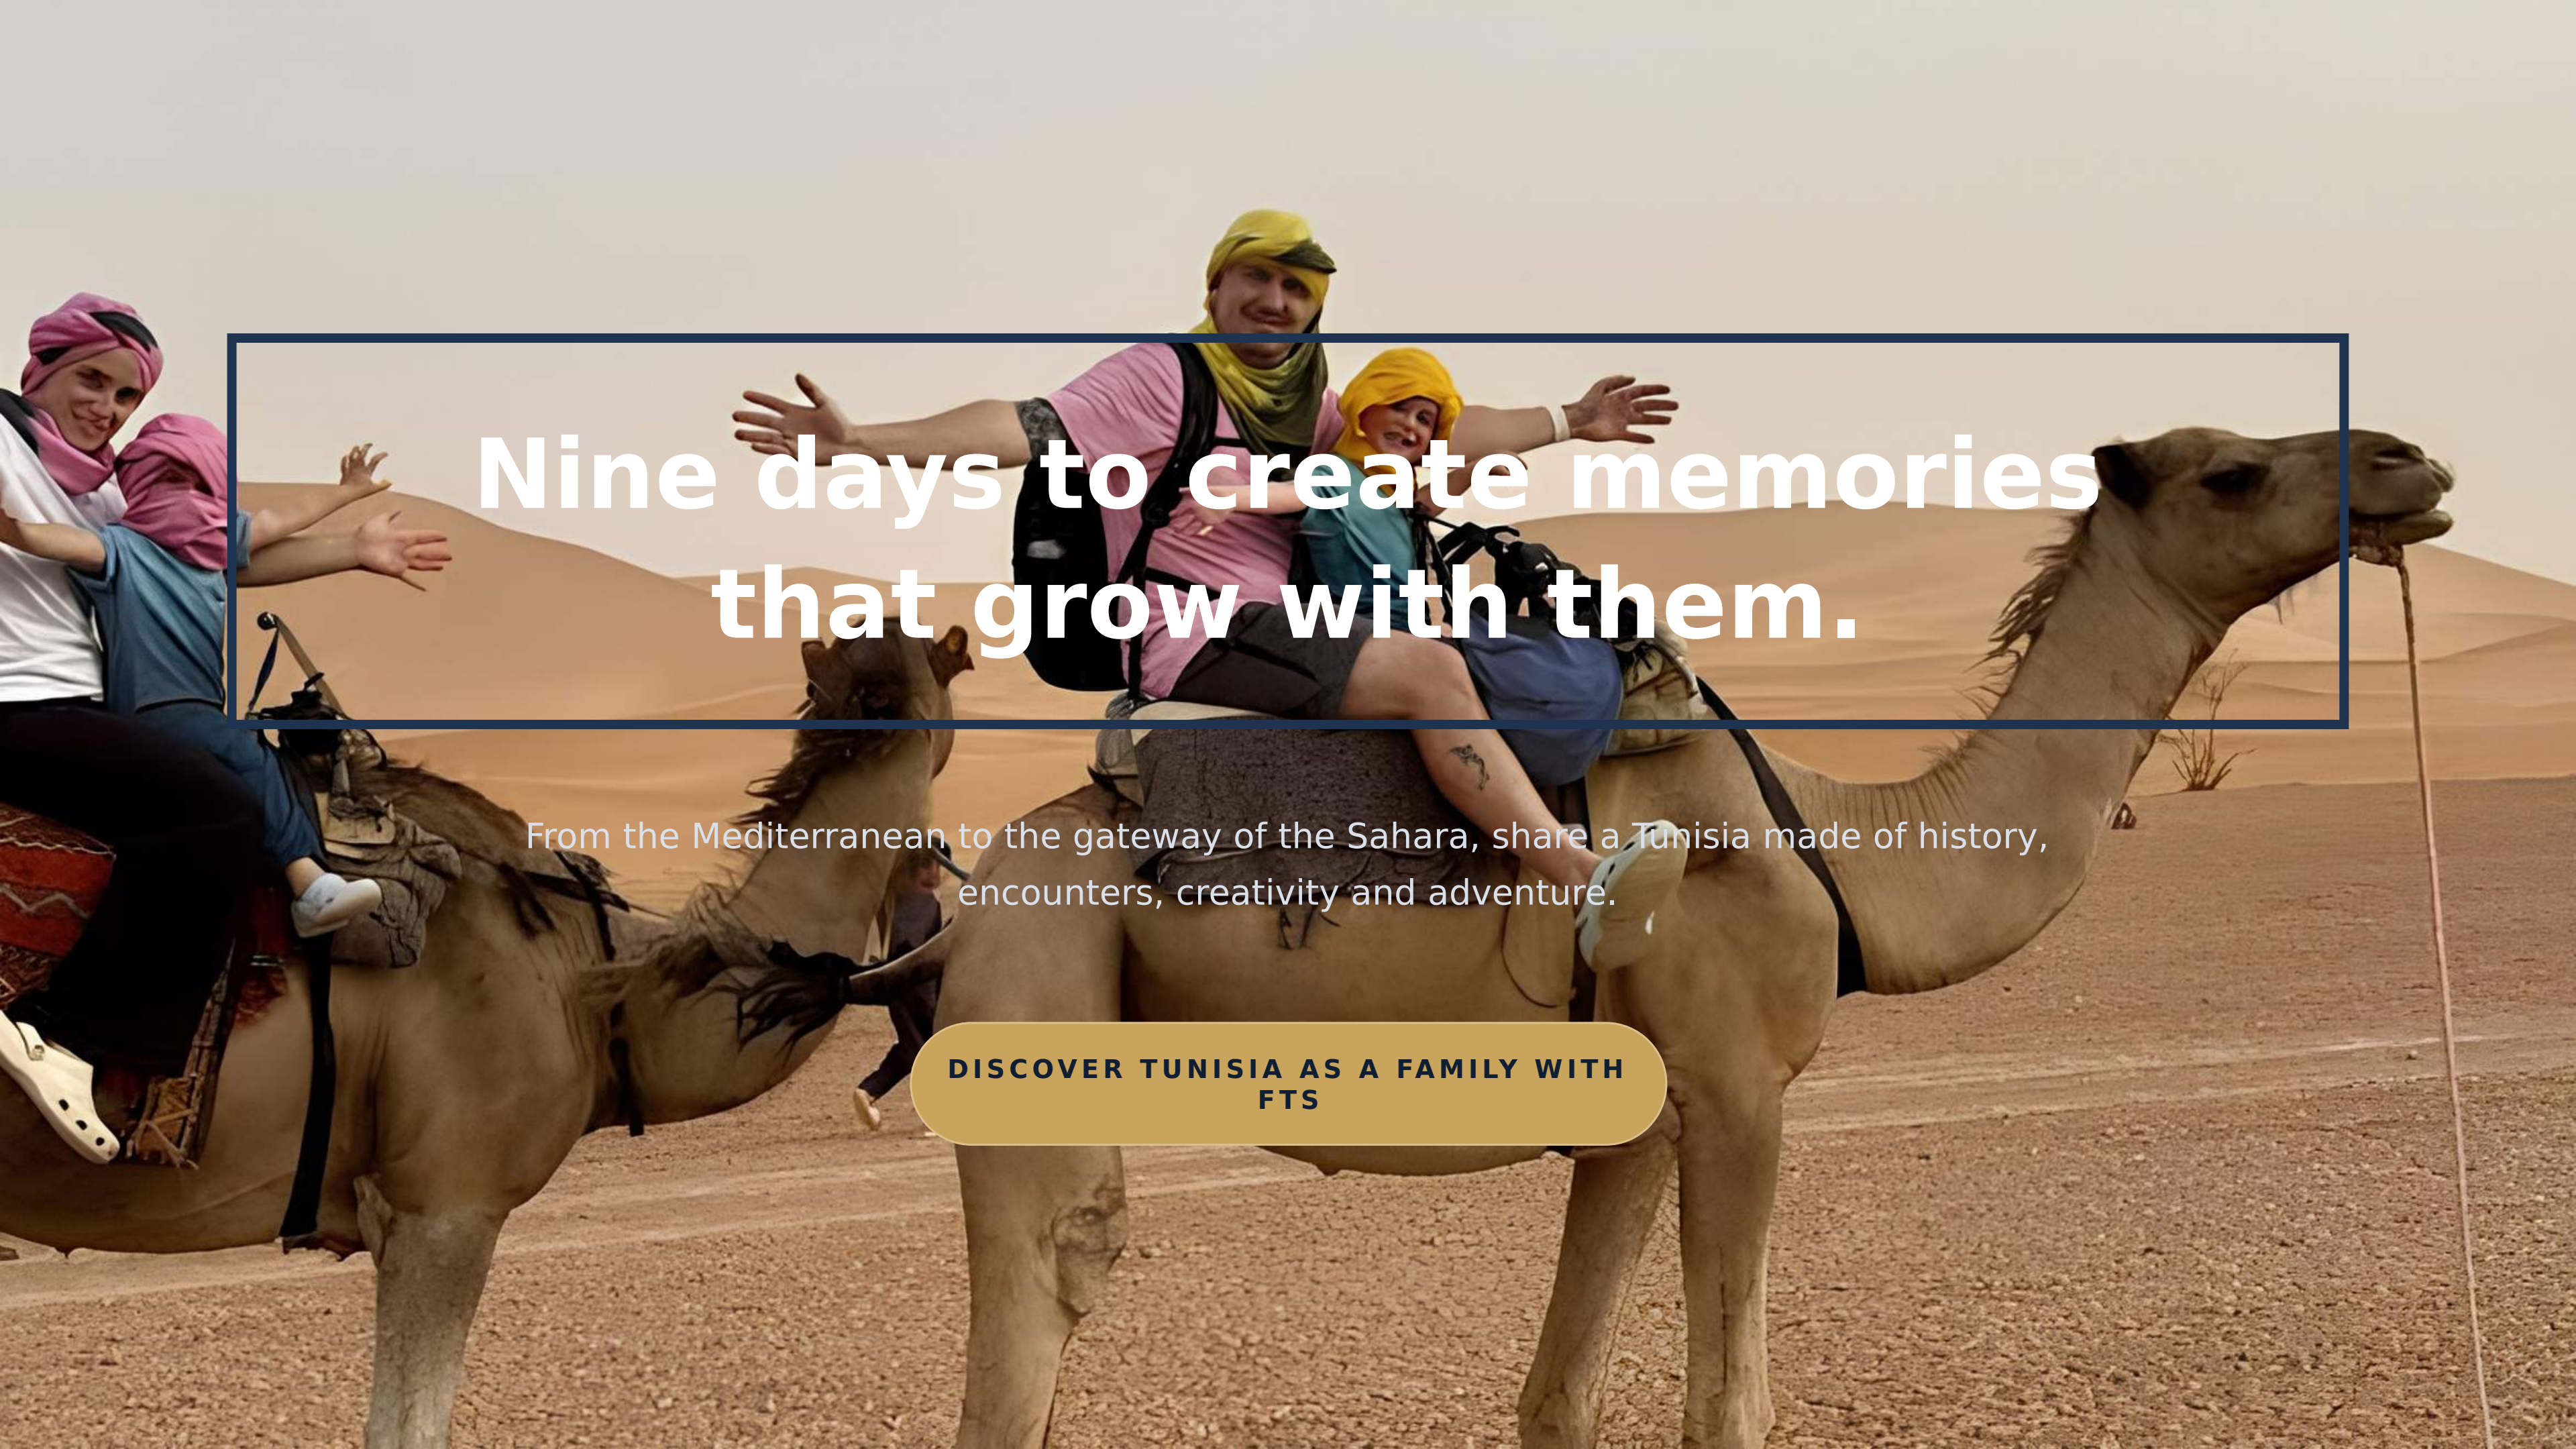

A structured programme, designed day by day.

Moments of sharing, tailored to a guided family experience.

A family of four is riding camels in a vast desert landscape. The father, wearing a yellow headscarf and a pink shirt, is in the center, with his arms outstretched. The mother, wearing a yellow headscarf and a blue shirt, is sitting next to him. Two children, both wearing pink headscarves, are also riding camels. The background shows rolling sand dunes under a clear sky.

Nine days to create memories that grow with them.

From the Mediterranean to the gateway of the Sahara, share a Tunisia made of history, encounters, creativity and adventure.
